FLASH SALE

The image shows a mobile game's in-game store interface. At the top left, it says "FLASH SALE" in yellow. At the top right, it says "TIME LEFT 99:99:99" and has a red "X" button. In the center, there's a large sword icon inside a yellow glow, with smaller icons for a sword and gold bars to its right. To the right of these icons is a descriptive text block: "This weapon is used by champions and proven fighters. None deserve this weapon more than the greatest fighters of all." Below this is a large red button with a white arrow pointing right containing the price "$ 9.99". The background is a dark, atmospheric scene of a character in a rocky environment.
